

Rugrats: A Live Adventure

PATRON FORM

The Parkland High School production of Rugrats: A Live Adventure will be performed January 22 & 23, 2011. Since premiering on Nickelodeon in 1991, the RUGRATS 'formula' still works. Kids love seeing a show about life from a kid's point of view. Life is one adventure after another for this group of pals. Usually led by fearless leader TOMMY, the RUGRATS turn the ordinary into the extraordinary. So think back on what the world looked like from the ground up and you'll have the proper perspective on how the RUGRATS view the world.

Our production cannot be successful without your support. If you or your business would care to support our production as a patron, the following opportunities are available.
